Chosen Name Options:

Central Community College supports that individuals may use names other than their legal name to identify themselves. These may include, but are not limited to, people who use their middle name instead of their first name, people who use nicknames, people who use an anglicized name, or people who use a name that affirms their gender identity. Except where their legal names are required by law, the college supports the use of an individual's chosen name. The use of a chosen name however, cannot be for misrepresentation or for illegal purposes.

Ethnic Information (Optional)

Race and Ethnicity information is never used in making an admissions decision at Central Community College.

We do strongly encourage you to share this information with us, so we may more accurately report required race/ethnicity data to the U.S. Department of Education and the State of Nebraska in support of Title IV and Federal Perkins funding. Race/ethnicity information reported by the college is in aggregate form and does not identify any student as an individual.

Ethnicity

Persons who are of Mexican, Puerto Rican, Cuban, Central or South American or other Spanish culture or origin are considered Hispanic/Latino regardless of their race.

Regardless of your answer to the prior question, please check one or more of the following groups in which you consider yourself to be a member:

- American Indian or Alaska Native
- Asian
- Black or African American
- Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander
- White
