College Information

Academic Standards Policy

A 2.0 cumulative grade-point average (GPA) is required to receive a degree, diploma, or certificate from Central Community College. To encourage satisfactory progress throughout the student's course of study, the college's academic standards policy establishes specific criteria to be met by all students enrolled in credit courses.

The college provides support for students experiencing difficulty in meeting academic standards. Assessment of academic skills, completion of foundations course work, modifications in course schedules, and/or development and participation in academic recovery plans are examples of intervention strategies which the college may employ to assist students experiencing academic difficulty. The detailed Academic Standard Procedures can be found online at www.cccneb.edu/studentpoliciesandprocedures.

Academic Success Center

The Academic Success Center provides the following services to all currently enrolled CCC students (whether on-campus or distance learners):

- Drop-in, virtual, and small group tutoring in a variety of subjects
- Supplemental Instruction (SI) is an academic assistance program that utilizes peer-assisted study sessions for select courses
- Writing Coaches
- Testing services for students with certain accommodations
- Support in study skills, test taking, note taking, etc.
- Assistance in improving reading, language, and math skills for college-level course expectations
- Computer lab and printer
- The Academic Success Center can be found at the following campus locations:
Columbus: Room 119, Student Center
Grand Island: Room 451
Hastings: Room 220, Dawson Building

Academic Transfer Office

The Academic Transfer office is the central coordinating service for academic advising for students who plan to transfer to another institution.

Students are provided guidance on general education requirements for transferring to other colleges/ universities and on CCC's policies, procedures, and resources.

The Academic Transfer Specialist assists students in planning course schedules and developing a plan of study for earning an Associate of Arts or Associate of Science Degree.

In addition, the Academic Transfer Specialist advises students who are preparing for numerous professions and clarifies the transfer institution's policies and procedures. The Academic Transfer Office can be found at the following campus locations:

Columbus: Room 102, Student Center

Grand Island: Room 498

Hastings: Room 142, Dawson Building

Advisors

Students who are seeking a certificate, diploma, or a degree are assigned an advisor who helps arrange a course of study that meets the student's goals and the graduation requirements of Central Community College. Advisors collaborate with you to help you achieve academic and personal success.

Advisors can help you in the following areas:

- Planning your class schedule.
- Learning about transferring to a four-year university.
- Exploring career options and resources.
- Accessing campus services like tutoring, career planning, academic help and more.

Consult your academic advisor every step of the way: when you arrive at CCC, while you are a student here and when you are making plans for your future. It is strongly recommended that students work with their advisors to create a course of study, for registration, changes in registration, graduation, and other enrollment procedures. All of this work is tracked and documented in the Student Planning pages of WebCentral at <https://colss-prod.ec.cccneb.edu/Student/Planning/DegreePlans>.

Assessment of Student Learning

Central Community College publishes student-learning outcomes by program. A copy may be obtained from the specific program faculty member. The faculty will assess the student's academic achievement of the published outcomes at or near the end of the student's program. Depending on the number of students enrolled in a program, all degree-seeking students or a randomly selected sample of these students will be required to participate in the assessment process.

The college will assess student learning through one or more of the following measurements:

1. Development of a portfolio of a student's works such as exams, report papers, videos, and etc.
2. A capstone experience (course or part of a course) where a student will complete a project using all of the skills learned throughout the program of study.
3. Series of exams.
4. A combination of the above

The assessment process provides information to the faculty for improving the quality of student learning. The assessment process has no impact on the student's grades or graduation.

Athletics

Central Community College provides intercollegiate athletic competition in men's basketball, women's basketball, women's volleyball, men's golf, men's soccer, women's soccer, women's softball, and co-ed shotgun sports under the governance of the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA). Shotgun sports is based at the Hastings Campus. All other athletic offerings are based at the Columbus Campus.

Central Community College offers competition in co-ed eSports under the governance of NJCAAe. Co-ed eSports is offered collegewide with competitions held virtually. Game schedules and more information can be found at www.cccraiders.com.

Attendance

Regular attendance and conscientious work habits are necessary to meet college-level expectations for standards of progress. Instructors may evaluate attendance as part of your grade, and students are encouraged to read the syllabus and understand their instructor's attendance policy. It is important to attend all class sessions, so that you can get the help you need from instructors and take tests during the scheduled lab or class period.

Good attendance will not only help you learn and earn better grades, but it also demonstrates responsibility and reliability, characteristics which faculty and future employers value.

If you know you will be absent for a short period of time, please notify your instructor(s). If you will be absent for an extended period of time, please contact the Director of Student Development to discuss a Leave of Absence.

If attendance becomes a problem, your advisor may be notified, and you may be required to meet with the advisor prior to your return to class.

Bookstores

Barnes & Noble College operates a bookstore at each of the major campus sites of the college. Besides books and college supplies, the bookstore also offers a variety of merchandise for student purchases. The bookstore establishes textbooks refund policies as directed by the Barnes & Noble College. Customer hours are posted at each campus bookstore. Books can be purchased at www.cccneb.edu/bookstore. In addition, textbook rental options are also available.

Central Community College has partnered with Barnes & Noble College to offer the Raider Ready textbook program. This comprehensive program ensures that all students have access to required learning materials by the first day of class. Students will receive both physical textbooks, provided on a rental basis, and digital course materials, which will be delivered directly through Canvas. While students are automatically opted into the Raider Ready program, they can choose to opt out and purchase their textbooks through other sources. Learn more about the Raider Ready program at <https://www.cccneb.edu/raiderready>.

Campus Activity Board

The Campus Activities Board (CAB) is open to all students in good standing on their respective campuses and meets monthly or as needed with the advisor. CAB members play an active role in planning, promoting, and assisting with social, recreational, and educational activities for the entire student body. As part of the campus board structure, members serve as spokespersons, advocating for student ideas and suggestions while sharing recommendations for campus and activity improvements with faculty, administration, and fellow students.

Student Technology Usage Agreement Guidelines

The college encourages the use of the computer and telephone system with its Internet and email access. However, the computer and telephone system with its Internet and email access is college property, and its purpose is to facilitate the learning process. Students are expected to use the computer and telephone system with its Internet and email access in a responsible manner. To ensure that all students understand their responsibilities, the guidelines outlined in the Student Technology Usage Agreement have been established for using the computer and telephone system with its Internet and email access.

Any improper use of the computer and telephone system with its Internet, and email access is not acceptable and will not be tolerated. Students are required to agree to the Student Technology Usage Agreement and complete the application for a login prior to creation of an account.

The full text of the Student Technology Usage Agreement/ Guidelines is located at www.cccneb.edu/StudentPoliciesandProcedures/.

Tobacco and Smoke Free Policy

Central Community College is committed to providing a safe and healthy environment for its employees, students, and visitors. No smoking or tobacco products are allowed on CCC property. Central Community College prohibits the use of all smokable products, smokeless tobacco and electronic smoking devices in all buildings, facilities, campus grounds, and vehicles. This action complies with Nebraska RSS 28-1327 and 28-1328 and rule 58 and 59 of the State Department of Health.

TRIO/SSS

TRIO/SSS (Student Support Services) is a federally funded program available college-wide to ensure all resources are in place for first generation, low income, and/or students with disabilities to be successful in the completion of their educational program. TRIO/SSS helps students stay in school, complete coursework, graduate, or transfer to a four-year institution. You may contact any TRIO/SSS Coordinator about the application process and participation in this program.

Tutoring

Tutoring is available at no charge to all CCC students to provide the extra assistance necessary to succeed in the classroom. Specially selected and trained students and professional tutors provide face-to-face and virtual tutoring options in most general education courses and in specific program areas.

Contact the Academic Success Center on your campus, your academic advisor, or your course instructor to learn more about tutoring support.

Veterans Administration & Department of Defense Student Benefits Policy

CCC will not impose any penalty, assess late fees, deny access to classes, libraries or other CCC facilities or require a benefit recipient to borrow additional funds due to the student's inability to meet financial obligations to CCC because of delayed payments from the Veterans Administration or the Department of Defense. This applies only to the amount paid to CCC by the VA or the Department of Defense for specific educational expenses, not to any balance due to CCC accrued by a benefit recipient for expenses not covered by their benefit.

For additional explanation and benefit definitions, refer to the Veterans Administration and Department of Defense CCC Student Benefits Procedures located at www.cccneb.edu/studentpoliciesandprocedures.

Veterans & Military Resource Center

Central Community College provides dedicated Veterans and Military Resource Centers on the Grand Island, Hastings, and Columbus campuses and at the Kearney Center. The VMRCs reinforce CCC's commitment to recognize and support Veteran students transitioning from the military to their next mission. Each VMRC provides a staffed, USO-styled area for students who share common backgrounds, experiences, and goals to connect with one another; camaraderie is the key objective. Veterans can also obtain information about other organizations, groups and activities that create a true network of support. Our mission is to provide student Veterans, service members and all military connected students the resources, support and advocacy needed to be successful in the classroom and in life.

Central Community College has been recognized as a Top "Military Friendly School" by GI Jobs Magazine for fourteen consecutive years and ranked "Best for Vets" for small colleges by Military Times Magazine for thirteen consecutive years. For more information, visit www.cccneb.edu/veterans.

Video Surveillance Policy

Central Community College authorizes the use of video cameras on college property to ensure the health, welfare, and safety of students, employees, and visitors and to safeguard college facilities, vehicles, and equipment. Such cameras may be used in locations as deemed appropriate by the college but shall not be used in locations where there is a reasonable expectation of privacy.

Weather Notification

Inclement Weather Notices

When inclement weather threatens, the president of the college or their designee will make any necessary decisions to cancel classes, delay classes, or close the college and all its operations. The decision will be announced through CCCAlerts and on area radio, television stations, and the college website. Every attempt will be made to have the announcement aired by 6 a.m. on the day of the closing or delay. If the college is already operating when inclement weather forces such a decision, CCCAlerts and a collegewide email will be used, as well as public media, to announce the decision. Students are encouraged to monitor their local weather and driving conditions to determine if they can safely travel to class. If hazardous conditions exist, students should use their own discretion about traveling.

Tornado or Severe Thunderstorm Procedures

Tornadoes and thunderstorms typically occur in the spring and summer seasons. It is important to understand the meanings of various weather notices in order to ensure your personal safety.

- Tornado or Thunderstorm Watch: Weather conditions are favorable for the possible development of tornadoes or severe thunderstorms. Continue normal activities but monitor the situation and notify others if conditions deteriorate.
- Tornado or Thunderstorm Warning: A tornado or thunderstorm is occurring or sighted in the area. In addition to dark clouds and/or hail, the emergency siren may sound. If you hear a civil defense siren, receive a severe weather announcement, or threatening weather looks eminent, move to a designated tornado shelter area as quickly as possible.

Things to do:

- Move to a designated tornado shelter and stay away from windows and areas with glass.
- Close all doors leading into tornado shelters
- Avoid auditoriums, gymnasiums, and other large rooms with free-span roofs.
- Do not use elevators.
- Protect your head and face. Cover your eyes with your hands. Coats, jackets, and books may be used to cover your head, arms, and legs to protect them from flying glass and other debris.
- Do not leave the shelter until you have been notified by campus personnel that the warning has expired.

WebCentral

WebCentral is the CCC web portal for students, faculty, and staff. It is your primary point of access to college information and services, including:

- Checking your grades or course schedule
- Registering for classes
- Viewing your unofficial transcript
- Accessing campus calendars
- Finding services to support you
- Paying your bill and accessing financial aid
- Keeping up with college news and events
- Accessing your college email

Music performance groups include three choirs and two bands. The ensembles meet two to three hours each week and perform four main stage concerts per year. Instruments are provided at no charge.

Auditions are required for Spectrum (college chamber choir), Alethea (women's chamber), and the Columbus Brass. No formal auditions are required for the College Chorus or the Columbus Campus - Community Band.

Scholarships are available for all ensembles. Additionally, private lessons in vocal and instrumental music are available through the program. Please contact the music faculty for more information.

Theater performances are scheduled throughout the year. The schedule includes at least one performance each semester. All students are encouraged to audition or choose to get involved with set construction, publicity, design, costumes, or other supporting activities required for a successful production. Contact the theater faculty for information on theater opportunities.

Intramural activities are provided in a variety of intramural and informal sports activities designed to meet the diverse needs and interests of our students. Activities and dates are posted throughout the campus. An open gym and weight room schedule are also available.

Parking

Parking areas on the campus are designed to allow quick access to all buildings by emergency vehicles. Violating parking regulations can block this access and endanger students and staff in the event of an emergency. Please observe the following parking regulations:

- Only campus-authorized vehicles may be driven on campus sidewalks.
- Only residence hall students may park in the lot southeast of the South Residence Hall.
- Permits must be attached for authorized parking. Residence hall students will receive permits from the Residence Life Office.
- Disability parking is available in designated areas. Handicapped parking permits can be obtained from The State of Nebraska Department of Motor Vehicles.
- Under certain circumstances, students may acquire an on-campus disability parking permit from the campus Disability Services

Office.

Parking tickets are issued when drivers violate campus parking and traffic regulations. A record of violations and a schedule of fines are maintained in the Student Accounts Office. Students can pay campus traffic and parking tickets at the Student Accounts Office. Failure to pay tickets may result in withholding of your transcripts and delay registration for future classes.

The roads and lots by the Residence Halls and Student Center are to be used only for temporary access and for deliveries. South Residence Hall students park in the lot located southeast of the hall. West Residence Hall students park in the West Parking Lot. A permit is required.

Parking

Parking areas on the campus are designed to allow quick access to all buildings by emergency vehicles. Violating parking regulations can block this access and endanger students and staff in an emergency. Please observe the following parking regulations:

- Only campus-authorized vehicles may be driven on campus sidewalks.
- Permits must be attached for authorized parking. Residence hall students will receive permits from the Residence Life Office.
- Disability parking is available in designated areas. Handicapped parking permits can be obtained from The State of Nebraska Department of Motor Vehicles.
- Under certain circumstances, students may acquire an on-campus disability parking permit from the campus Disability Services Office.

Parking tickets are issued when drivers violate campus parking and traffic regulations. A record of violations and a schedule of fines are maintained in the Student Accounts Office. Students can pay for campus traffic and parking tickets at the Student Accounts Office. Failure to pay tickets may result in withholding of your transcripts and delay registration for future classes.

Traffic Regulations

Parking and/or driving is prohibited on grass plots, or any other place where parking would mar the landscaping of the campus or interfere with the use of college facilities.

Any car left in any parking area during a vacation period will be towed away at the owner's expense unless special arrangements are made with the Campus Security office.

Any car parked or stalled on the streets during snow removal will be towed at the owner's expense unless the Campus Security office has been notified and a release form has been signed so the maintenance department can move the vehicle.

Violations of existing traffic regulations or driving conduct detrimental to the college may result in loss of privileges.

The maximum speed limit on all college drives and roads is 15 mph unless otherwise posted.

Glossary Terms

During your college life at Central Community College, you may encounter several new words and phrases, which are very important to your education. We have listed some of these below with brief definitions to help you understand more about college life.

Advisor - When you enroll in a program, you will be assigned a faculty or staff advisor. Your advisor will help you plan your course of study. In addition, your advisor can help with academic concerns, program transfers, clearances from college, and other academic or personal concerns.

Credit by Program Examination/ Prior Learning - If you have prior training or related work experience in your area of study, you may be eligible to receive college credit. Work with your academic advisor and the program faculty or associate dean for more information.

Credit Hour - A standard unit of measure used to ascertain the educational value of course work offered by the institution, and for which tuition is charged. CCC awards credit on the semester-hour system.

Drop and Add - Changes in registration are referred to as “drop and add.” Students may make changes to their registration by adding, dropping, or withdrawing courses by the applicable deadlines. Students are responsible for initiating changes by contacting the Registration Office directly through WebCentral (Student Planning) or via Phone Central (308) 398-7412. For specific information on add/drop/withdrawal procedures and deadlines, contact the Registration Office or view the Registration Procedures in the college catalog at <https://catalog.cccneb.edu/> under Student Services Offices.

Schedule changes may impact a student’s financial aid and/or ability to reside in the residence hall.

Full-Time Student - Full-time enrollment status during the fall and spring semester consists of registering for a minimum of 12 credit hours, and 6 credit hours in the summer semester

General Education - General education courses introduce students to knowledge and skills that enable them to fulfill educational and occupational goals while at the same time enlightening them about social and cultural aspects of life. Graduates who complete general education requirements become better prepared to function effectively as citizens in a democratic and technological society. General education competency requirements are grouped into the following categories: Communications, Critical Thinking and Problem Solving, Life and Career Skills, Information and Technology Literacy, and Global Awareness.

Hybrid courses - These courses offer students course experience with both online and lecture components.

Intramural - Non-varsity organized competitions hosted by Student Activities.

Leave of Absence - A temporary leave from college may be requested for approved medical emergencies or other extraordinary circumstances

Program of Study - A student’s major area of study.

Student Electives - Classes which are not specifically spelled out in the course of study for your program. These courses are called student electives. Your advisor can assist you in choosing electives which suit your needs.
