

Expectations for Academic Integrity

Central Community College believes successful students are independent critical thinkers who possess the work ethic and skills necessary to make a positive difference in their professions and communities. In order to maximize student and community success, CCC is devoted to maintaining an honest academic environment and upholding integrity as a core value. All individuals across all course modalities are expected to practice academic integrity, which encompasses the fundamental values of honesty, trust, respect, fairness, and responsibility. In the case of alleged violations of academic integrity, Central Community College strives for fair resolution.

Instances of Academic Dishonesty:

Behaviors that violate the fundamental values of academic integrity at Central Community College may include but are not limited to the following:

- Plagiarism - direct copying or paraphrasing without citation someone else's work (i.e. writing, images, video or audio)
- Cheating - engaging in any behavior intended to achieve an unfair advantage for self or another in any academic exercise (i.e. unauthorized collaboration or unauthorized use of resources or data in a study)
- Fabricating Information - inventing or falsifying information (i.e. making up resources and/or citations, falsifying academic records)
- Facilitating Academic Dishonesty - soliciting, furnishing, or offering to furnish unauthorized exams, quizzes, or academic materials; participating in academic sabotage

Procedures for Addressing Alleged Instances of Academic Dishonesty

1. When an instructor believes a student may have committed academic dishonesty, the instructor will contact the student to discuss the situation (face-to-face, phone or electronic communication). Electronic meetings may be appropriate for distance students. Every effort will be made to resolve the situation between the instructor and the student.
2. At the discretion of the instructor, resolution of academic dishonesty may include the following Academic Sanctions:
 - a. Revision and resubmission of the assignment/project/paper within an identified time frame, potentially with a lowered grade;
 - b. No resubmission of the assignment/project/paper with an immediate zero;
 - c. An immediate zero for the test/quiz/examination.
3. The instructor completes the Academic Integrity Action Form and submits it to the Division Dean of Instruction. The form may be referenced should the student be involved in additional alleged instances of academic dishonesty.
4. In addition to instructor's Academic Sanctions, a student involved in academic dishonesty also may be subject to College Sanctions recommended by the Division Dean of Instruction including probation, suspension or dismissal. See the Student Handbook for additional information.
5. Incidents of academic dishonesty that occur independent of a particular assignment or course will be forwarded directly to the Division Dean of Instruction for review. Resolution of incidences may include recommended or applied College Sanctions such as probation, suspension, or dismissal from college.

Academic Integrity Appeal Procedures

1. The student has the right to appeal an academic sanction applied by an instructor for academic dishonesty within 5 business days of the applied academic sanction.
2. For incidents of academic dishonesty, the instructor will notify the student (face-to-face, phone or electronic communication) of the academic sanction applied. Electronic meetings may be appropriate for distance students.
3. The student has the right to appeal the academic sanction by requesting a meeting with the Division Associate Dean of Instruction within 5 business days of notification of the academic sanction by the instructor.
4. Should resolution not be reached, the student has the right to continue the appeal by submitting the Academic Integrity Action Form to the Division Dean of Instruction within 5 business days of the meeting with the Division Associate Dean of Instruction to request an appeal panel hearing.
5. The Division Dean of Instruction may contact the student for additional information before convening and moderating a three-member Academic Appeal Panel.
6. The student has the right to request a peer student serve as an appeal panel member. If requested, the peer student will be selected by the Division Dean of Instruction.
7. The student is responsible for providing electronic copies of supporting documents s/he plans to present during the appeal hearing to the Division Dean of Instruction 5 business days prior to the date of the appeal hearing. The Division Dean of Instruction will forward documentation to the appeal panel members to review prior to the appeal hearing. Should no documentation be provided, the hearing will proceed.
8. The Academic Appeal Panel will convene to review the documentation, to hear student and instructor statements, and to make a recommendation for resolution to the Division Dean of Instruction. In the case of a student's or instructor's absence, the hearing may proceed.
 - a. The student and instructor will make separate statements before the appeal panel.
 - i. The student is allowed a maximum of ten minutes to present his/her appeal, including review of any supporting documentation.
 - ii. The instructor is allowed a maximum of ten minutes to present circumstances of the situation.
 - b. A supporting advocate may accompany the student to the hearing and will be introduced to the panel. The advocate will speak only if questioned by the panel.
 - c. The appeal panel may ask clarifying questions.
9. Following the hearing, the appeal panel will make a written recommendation to the Division Dean of Instruction within 3 business days.
10. The Division Dean of Instruction will review the Academic Appeal Panel's recommendation and finalize resolution of the appeal. All parties will be notified by the Division Dean of Instruction. Additional College Sanctions (probation, suspension, dismissal) may be recommended at this time.
11. The student and/or instructor have the right to appeal the Division Dean of Instruction's resolution.

- a. The student and/or instructor may appeal Academic Sanctions by contacting the College Executive Vice President to request final consideration of the appeal within 5 business days of notification by the Division Dean of Instruction.
 - b. The student may appeal College Sanctions by Due Process Procedures (See the Student Handbook for additional information) within 10 business days of notification by the Division Dean of Instruction.
12. The College Executive Vice President will review all relevant materials pertaining to the appeal. The decision of the College Executive Vice President regarding the resolution of academic appeal is final.
