Income Verification for TRiO/SSS

Students attending Central Community College are classified as either Dependent students or Independent students for purposes of financial aid. To be considered for the TRiO program we must verify your income with consideration of your dependent / independent status.

For students who are classified as Independent students—this means the student meets one of the following criteria:

1. is 24 years of age or older by December 31 of this year;
2. is an orphan or ward of the court or was a ward of the court until you reached the age of 18;
3. is a veteran of the Armed Forces of the United States;
4. is a graduate or professional student;
5. is a married individual;
6. has legal dependents other than a spouse; or
7. is a student for whom a financial aid administrator makes a documented determination of independence by reason of other unusual circumstances.

All other students are considered Dependents. Usually these students are claimed, or are eligible to be claimed, on their parent's income tax return.

Dependent Students: We need you and your parents to complete this section. Please return to the TRiO office.

On the parent's 2017 taxes, the taxable income reported was:

[See Line 43-Form 1040 or Line 27-Form 1040A].

On the parent's 2017 taxes, the number of exemptions (please include your college student(s) in this number even if you did not claim them as an exemption for 2017) was:
